Dear Mr. Naomith.

I much ask you to accept my hearty thanks for your kind share in the wonderful presentation
"Purse" given to me before leaving Toronto - which I appreciate more than

4.1

deeply. The very dear words from Mr. Warren - which accompanied it - also add treasure to the many happy memories that Toronto has given to us.

We had a wonderful journey through the Canadian west & made a real entry through the Golden Gate to this fascinating city - the beauties of which we are discovering with fresh interest. The musical season opens on Sept 15th with three weeks of Grand Opera & a goodly array of Concerts to follow. With renewed thanks

Believe me
Most sincerely, Grace Smith Harris

Dear Mrs Nassmith:

Now please

don't look at the end to see who is writing you -

It is someone who has not seen you since you were

Ema - Scott - Raff and much beloved — in the old College of Music with Mr Shaw and

Miss Hall — Perhaps

you won't even remember when you do see the signature for it was twenty - seven years ago. ~~That~~ Do you remember Winifred

Ligon and Mary McCole who roomed together at Mrs Shaw's? Do you
recall how we used to slip down to your room
to study while the baby slept? - Well I was little Mary - And I do so often think of you tho' I can't remember the baby's name.

The other day, I received a letter from Mrs Eva Young who used to be a neighbour of ours in Dartmouth - their grounds almost-adjained ours - But her husband died and her son Roland is her sole support - They are very nice people. She has asked me to write you as she knew I knew you in the old days - She's a very sweet - woman and said to get the position she is seeking she would not have to be anything wonderful - only good and honest - She is that without a doubt -

She has asked my husband to write - Premier Ferguson - and he will do so

I do hope you will remember a tiny bit who I am - you see I still have our class picture on one of our walls and your face is ever before me.

How I should love
a letter from you - Perhaps you will be able to find time -

Remembering old days
